When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

DEFEAT OF LORD SALISBURY.

London, 4 a.m.

House of Commons voted thus on the Gladstone motion of want of confidence:

For Gladstone	350
Against	310

Cadiz, 12th—The Argentine war vessels arrived yesterday from Huelva.

Yesterday a funeral service for the victims of the Rosales was attended by the first people in Cadiz, and many Spanish naval officers. The Argentine sailors are great favourities.

The squadrons that took part in the Huelva fetes are now going to the Mediterranean en route for Genoa, where the naval review is expected to be the grandest seen in this century.

Tangiers, 12th—In view of the proportions which the civil war is assuming, and the complications feared, some of the foreign Ministers here have telegraphed for war-ships to be sent to Morocco.

Berlin, 12th—Bismarck's organ says that the Government, not daring to prosecute the new Chancellor, or contend with him has adopted new tactics, and will worry his friends. It adds that this is a proof of the littleness of the Government, and that the day of Bismarck's complete triumph is not far off.

London, 12th—Mr. Gladstone has received numerous telegrams congratulating him on his speeches, and ability in the recent debate, that has ended in Lord Salisbury's defeat.

Lord Salisbury and his Cabinet resigned this evening.

Mr. Gladstone will go to Osborne to-morrow to be ordered to form a new Cabinet in which Sir W. Vernon Harcourt and Lord Rosebery are certain to figure.

The Conservative papers are very pessimistic about yesterday's vote, and say that Gladstone's Government will not last long.

Berlin, 12th—Emperor William has refused to sanction an Exhibition in 1898, and it will be abandoned.

Rome, 12th—There is great uneasiness in the Vatican owing to the French squadron going to Genoa, lest it improve the relations between France and Italy.

Cardinal Rampolla, Secretary of State, has ordered the Nuncio in Paris to try and influence the tone of President Carnot's letter to the King of Italy on the occasion.

Genoa, 12th—One hundred war-ships of all nations will take part in the naval review on the King's visit.

Rome, 12th—From March last to date the Public Debt has been reduced by 9,000,000 lire.

Denial is given here to the news of some French and Italian papers to the effect that the German Banker Bleichroder has been asked to negotiate a new loan for Italy. The report is believed to be a speculative Bolsa ruse.

Tangiers, 12th - A French artillery officer has arrived here to enter the Sultan's service, with permission from the French Government.

(To the "Prensa".)

London, 11th.—Gladstone has been informed that the Queen will receive him at Osborne on Friday and ask him to form a new Cabinet, the defeat and resignation of Lord Salisbury being a foregone conclusion.

The leading Calcutta papers advise Government, in view of the great fall in the rate of exchange, to stop coining silver and not remain passive in face of the crisis which is imminent.

Berlin, 11th—The Berliner Tageblatt says that Von Soden, Governor of the German possessions in East Africa, has asked to be recalled. This is considered a triumph for Major Weissman, whose friends say that Soden's unfitness for his post has caused all the trouble with the natives.

Count Eulemberg has been named Minister of the Interior, vice Herfurth. The Minister of Justice, Schsling, will shortly resign.

There was a shock of earthquake in the Rhine provinces this morning. At Coblentz the people rushed into the streets half dressed. No damage was done.

Tangiers, 11th.—The insurgents attacked the Sultan's troops again to-day and killed 100 of them, losing few themselves. It is feared they may attack this city.

Constantinople, 11th.—Cholera has invaded Asia Minor from Persia. At Trebizonde some of 1500 cholera patients in the Lazaretto tried to escape: the guard fired on them, killing 8 and wounding 34.

In Teheran the epidemic is increasing.

Munich, 11th.—The Bavarian and Prussian Ministers of War have refused to allow military bands to go to the Chicago Exhibition.

ARGENTINE TRADE-RETURNS.

HALF-YEAR ENDING JUNE 30TH.

The usual half-yearly returns were issued yesterday, and shew as compared with the corresponding half year of 1891 as follows:—

	June 1891 $ gold	June 1892 $ gold
Imports	33,200,000	37,900,000
Exports	62,100,000	66,200,000
Total trade	95,300,000	104,100,000
Duties	23,940,000	43,530,000

The ratios of increase are as follow:—

In imports	14 per cent.
In exports	7 " "
In customs revenue	81 " "

The increase of revenue is very much greater than that of trade.

Import Trade.

Some items shew a notable increase, as, for example, the following:—

	June 1891.	June 1892
Rice, tons	5,800	7,200
Sugar "	6,000	13,500
Coffee "	450	1,170
Tea "	110	370
Yerba "	7,600	11,100
Paper "	1,250	1,450
Coal "	169,000	255,000
Iron "	7,600	16,500
Wire "	10,100	18,500
Kerosene, gals.	1,220,000	2,210,000
Wine "	3,630,000	4,840,000

The increase in sugar and wine imports shews that the home production is still far short of the requirements of the country, and that the present high duties are a cruel burthen on the public. The sugar-duty is at present 100 per cent ad valorem. Meantime it is gratifying to see that there is an increase of 50 per cent in coal, 115 per cent in iron, 84 per cent in wire, and 80 per cent in kerosene, all articles of primary importance.

It may be advantageous to compare the values of the principal branches of imports, thus—

	June 1891 $ gold.	June 1892 $ gold.
Groceries	3,790,000	6,550,000
Wines	1,900,000	2,490,000
Dry goods	8,330,000	13,320,000
Lumber	1,560,000	1,460,000
Hardware	2,220,000	3,550,000
Coal etc.	1,920,000	2,900,000
Railway materials	8,550,000	1,810,000
Sundries	4,930,000	5,820,000
Total	33,200,000	37,900,000

If we deduct railway materials it will be seen that the import trade has increased nearly 50 per cent, viz.—

	$ gold.
Half-year 1891	24,650,000
" 1892	36,100,000

This is a most satisfactory feature, and as most people ridicule the Pellegrini theory that import trade is injurious, we have no doubt the public will accept the above as a conclusive proof that the worst of the crisis is past.

Export Trade.

The values of the principal items shew thus:—

	June 1891 $ gold	June 1892 $ gold
Wool	33,400,000	31,100,000
Hides & skins	8,100,000	8,900,000
Meat	5,300,000	6,200,000
Grain	8,400,000	13,200,000
Linseed	300,000	2,300,000
Lumber	1,100,000	500,000
Minerals	300,000	400,000
Sundries	5,200,000	3,600,000
Total	62,100,000	66,200,000

There is a marked decline in wool and lumber, which is the more note-worthy because exaggerated rumours have been diligently circulated by the Government organs on these subjects. We always called in doubt the oft-repeated assertion that the wool-clip of 1891-92 would be found to reach 400 million lbs. In the above table meat includes also live cattle. The quantities exported were:—

	June 1981 tons	June 1892 tons
Wool	111,400	103,600
Mutton	11,200	12,500
Beef	19,300	35,100
Wheat	266,000	362,000
Maize	26,000	119,000
Linseed	5,600	37,800
Hay	16,200	14,700
Tallow	11,100	15,100
Sheepskins	9,800	11,300
	No.	No.
Cow-hides	1,850,000	1,720,000
Live cattle	112,000	60,000
" sheep	61,000	28,000

There is a slight increase in the frozen mutton trade and a very notable one in preserved beef of various kinds. Maize and linseed shew much better than in 1891. On the other hand the export of live cattle, mostly over the Andes to Chile, shews a great decline. We also note a falling off in wool and hay, but so much wool has been stored that we expect the clip for 1891-92 will show fully as much as last year's.

The current of bullion is stated thuh—

	June 1891 $ gold	June 1892 $ gold
Imported	4,750,000	6,050,000
Exported	1,040,000	140,000
Surplus imported	3,710,000	5,910,000

We have frequently pointed out that there is no reliance to be placed on the figures relative to the current of bullion.

THE CRISIS AT LONDON.

The Havas telegram which we published yesterday in a special bulletin shews that "the old parliamentary hand" has checkmated Lord Salisbury after a few moves. The majority against the Government was 40, which confirms our anticipations, for it will be remembered that in our issue of July 13th we said—

"Mr. Gladstone will probably come "into power with a majority of 44 in the "new House of Commons."

We may expect to hear to-day that Her Majesty has requested him to form his fourth Cabinet, on the understanding that he will at once submit to Parliament his scheme of Home Rule for Ireland.

If Mr. Gladstone succeed in this crowning effort of his life it will be the 4th measure of transcendental importance passed by Parliament in the present century: the previous ones were:

1st Catholic Emancipation in 1828, under the Duke of Wellington.

2nd The Reform Bill of 1832 under Lord Grey.

3rd Free trade in 1847 under Sir Robert Peel.

All the above measures were violently opposed by the Conservative party, and each of them has tended in a powerful manner to build up the kingdom of which we are all so justly proud.

The political history of G. Britain, meantime, teaches us one remarkable lesson, namely that however tremendous the opposition to any one of the above signal reforms they no sooner became law than the nation settled down quietly to its ordinary business, as if nothing had occurred.

Six months hence we shall have forgotten all the fighting that there was over Home Rule, and wondered that men's minds were so excited on the matter. Just as we laugh now when we read the speeches that were made against Catholic Emancipation.

But, if by any mishap Mr. Gladstone were unable to carry out Home Rule in the present Parliament it is hard to suppose that any other British statesman would be able to accomplish the task for many years to come. This would be a very sad prospect, as it might then be necessary to disfranchise Ireland and govern it as a Crown colony, in the same way that Austria governed Lombardy.

All those who value the importance of the U. Kingdom as a factor in the progress of liberty and civilization will rejoice to see Ireland joined heart and soul in the destinies of the British nation, instead of being held as a conquered country.

This is precisely the issue involved in Home Rule, and hence it is impossible not to feel the liveliest interest in the solution of a question that has now occupied Parliament 51 years.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

A CHAPTER OF DISASTERS. THE ELECTIONS.

July 14th.

The old proverb 'misfortunes never come singly' has been worn threadbare by the newspapers during the last day or two, and with some reason. Within the space of comparatively a few hours we have received the news of a hurricane in Montevideo with great destruction of life and property, a terrible fire in St. Johns, Newfoundland, with a loss of property as at present stated amounting to nearly two millions and a half sterling—a great fire in Norway reducing the best part of the town of Christiansand to ashes—an explosion on board the steamer Mont Blanc on the lake of Geneve, the details of which are ghastly—the eruption of Mount Etna, the approach of the lava streams and tremblings of the earth threatening the existence of certain towns and villages—the falling away of the Bionnay glacier in Mont Blanc into a gorge below, involving the loss of more than a hundred lives by the force of a swollen torrent carrying away the whole village of Bionnay as well as the hotel at Saint Gervais (les bains on the road to Chamounix).

To day we hear of the death of seventeen tourists on Mont Blanc, and we have the pleasant intelligence that asiatic cholera has passed the European frontier and has travelled from Baku, where it was raging, to Moscow. In Paris cholera nostras has been for some time prevalent, and this afternoon a case of asiatic cholera is reported from that city. I must add in parenthesis that the Wordsworth', which arrived at Flushing from Buenos Aires on the 12th inst, is in quarantine. There was one death during the voyage, and two or three suspicious cases of sickness still on board.

Some familiar texts from Holy Writ recur to us on reading the little history of a Danish gentleman who recently went to Savoy and Switzerland to enjoy a summer holiday. Finding himself at Geneva he embarked with other happy excursionists on board the steamer Mont Blanc to take a sail round the lake Suddenly whilst calling at one of the little ports a plate gives way and the metal dome surmounting the boiler is sent whizzing through the saloon and into the lake through the boat's stern. In a moment the passengers in the saloon are hurled, together with chairs, tables and lamps, to one end of the saloon in a mangled scalded heap. The steam had scalded some of them beyond recognition; their heads were scalped, and their hands had the appearance of gloves turned inside out. When the steam cleared away and the rescuers could get into the cabin, they found eight dead bodies and twenty poor wretches completely disfigured writhing in agony and yelling with pain. As they were borne away, most of them to die, they begged to be thrown into the lake to end their misery. Our Danish friend escaped. But he had seen all those horrors, and to restore his shattered nerves, on his return to Geneva he went to spend a few days at the sulphur springs of Saint Gervais in the wooded ravine of Montarrie through which the Bon Nant (the good stream) passes on its way to join the river Arve. In the middle of the night the torrent from the fallen glacier came and swept away the hotel with its guests, and amongst others the Danish gentleman. The next morning the sun row brightly on the scene of the catastrophe. The swollen torrent had returned to its bed. It seemed incredible that the now insignificant stream could have wrought such havoc. Huge blocks of granite as big as cottages had been hurled along by the torrent as if they had been wisps of straw. These are what the people in the hotel, when roused from their beds, saw in the dim light cashing through the court yard in a cloud of foam. There were 80 ladies and gentlemen at the hotel at Saint Gervais-les Vains on that night of terror. By latest accounts, the total number of deaths in the valley is 148. The bodies which have been found are some limbless, some decapitated, and many unrecognisable. It will be weeks before the mud yields up all its dead and the victims are identified. The newspaper accounts written by survivors are intensely interesting. I send them by the "Trent." If she arrives first, this letter you can suppress. In regard to the disaster at St. John's, you will probably know by telegram as much as we can tell you. The British ships of war on the station are carrying provisions, and subscriptions are being made in the city of London and in Liverpool and other places for the relief of the thousands whom the fire has rendered homeless.

One word in regard to the elections. It is to be hoped that you will have already received the news that Mr. Gladstone has triumphed, as he undoubtedly will; but there is much more to be said, which I reserve until to-morrow, merely stating on this occasion the plain facts that, as far as the numerical strength of the two parties is concerned, they were this afternoon neck and neck, as you will see by the subjoined statement, and you must know moreover that, just as Mr. John Morley was morally defeated at Newcastle, Mr. Gladstone has suffered a still greater defeat in the Edinburghshire Midlothian district. His majority, which at the last election was counted by thousands, was in the present election reduced to 690! The general state of the poll at 4 o'clock this afternoon was as follows:—

Liberals	229
Nationalists	48
Parnellites	7
	284
Conservatives	246
Lib. Dissentients	38
	284

Now, turning to the algebraical business of plus and minus and gains and losses, on a division the case stands thus:

		Gains.
Liberals	—	75
Conservatives	18
Dissentients	4
	22	22
Net Liberal gain		53

Or 106 on a division!

Since 4 p.m. there has been a slight alteration, and the state of parties stands thus:

Conservatives	285
Gladstonians	286
Gladstonian majority	1

Now, in the face of this simple arithmetic, will any one fortified with his algebraical-metaphysical gains "on a division", go into the streets and tell people that the Liberals have a majority of 106? I think not. There is some fallacy in the applied algebra. Without stopping to think much about it, it seems to me that it is a question of applying the rule in bye-elections when it is quite right, and in general elections when it is not. In the former case it is a question of corpus to corpus. If out of a House of 670 there are 350 Conservatives and 300 Liberals, then in the excess—20—a gain of 1, of course, counts as 2 on a division, and is of importance. But when it is the whole body of members and the two parties that are in question, it appears to me that all the fanfaronde we have seen of "blotting out the Conservative majority" because a Liberal gain of 34 for instance gives 68 on a division, is an illusion—and the greater the gain the more apparent the illusion ought to become. The Liberal majority by simple arithmetic is at this moment 1! The Nationalists in Ireland, who are completely snuffing out the Parnellites, may add to our majority. And the English and Scotch agricultural vote in the counties, which has proved more faithful to Mr. Gladstone than the borough vote, may add something more, but as many knew beforehand, it is neither Gladstone's name nor Home Rule that has given us a majority at all, except it is due to the Irish vote. Under these circumstances, it is not strange that paragraphs should already appear like the subjoined from the St. James's Gazette of this evening:—

"The London correspondent of the Independent (Parnellite, says:—In a select circle of leading supporters of Mr. Gladstone, held in a political centre here last night, a gentleman came in who was known to all present and inquired," "Had they heard the news?" They asked, "What news?" and the reply was. "Home Rule has been postponed by agreement with the Irish party." The gentleman who brought the intelligence went on:—"There have been negotiations going on with the Irish party in view of the present state of affairs, and they have consented to allow Home Rule to stand over for the present. This is done in order that some big measure of reform may be introduced—one man one vote, a better system of registration, and all elections to be held on the one day." The news was received with delight."

The paragraph just quoted is evidently a reflection of what the Chelsea Liberal Association had already suggested to Mr. Gladstone a day or two ago. The necessity of the reform of electoral procedure before again appealing to the country is obvious; but the G. O. M. has gone to Bramar and is fatigued, and perhaps vexed with the Kirk in Midlothian.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Thursday.

It is reported that Dr. Angel Brian, President Herrera's secretary, went to Buenos Ayres to make arrangements with the Mint there for the coining of three million silver-dollars.

Mr. Herschell, manager of the firm of Garini and Sons, has left to open a branch in Buenos Ayres.

It was rumored this morning that General Perez, Minister of War and Marine, was about to resign and Colonel Ricardo Flores, commander of the 2nd Cazadores, would be his successor.

The tugs Toro and España have left to rescue the barque Voluntad de Dios, which went aground at Pavon.

The War-Minister will visit Flores Island to-morrow with a view of forming an idea of the progress of the works which he ordered there.

The Brazilian General Joael Maciel da Costa arrived to-day in the steamer Desterro. The same steamer brought 160 immigrants.

Affairs on 'Change are beginning to revive. Cedulas are improving.

Messrs. Miguelerena and Castellanos have started an olive-plantation on their San Antonio estate near Salto.

Mr. Louis Michaelson, the well-known sportsman, has laid before the Government a project for starting a stud to supply the army with horses.

Mr. Harry Barringer Cox has taken out a nine years' patent for a new dynamo.

The Custom House Director handed to-day to the London Bank $9,678.

Mr. J. Shaw has issued invitations for the first of his series of Monday receptions.

Mr. Nicolich was married yesterday to Miss Primitiva Nuñez.

The Government, it is said, will establish a uniform tax for slaughtering.

Friday Evening.

The report in reference to the coining of three million silver dollars in Buenos Ayres is officially denied.

There is a majority in the Chamber of Deputies opposed to the Government project for the issue of two millions paper-money.

President Herrera is decided to again offer the portfolio of Finance to Dr. Carlos Maria Ramirez.

The following merchants have died: Mario Rodriguez, Nicolas Hernandez, Guillermo Poujade and Ignacio Guillot.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

More about Pergamino. The township of Pergamino is to be increased, as the Municipality has not a single 'chacra' left to dispose of. This is owing to the rapid strides of agriculture. The little town of Acevedo is the Palermo of Pergamino. There is a very fine race-course there and the scenery is very picturesque. The following settlements lie in the district of Pergamino:—La Cora, Pellegrini, Peña, Cañada de Gomez, Rio Aguirre, Villaverde, Aduair, Ramallo, Olmos, La Margarita, Navarro, Rossi and Socorro. The railway station at Pergamino is quite a busy place. About 30 trains a day pass through it. There are no less than five different railway companies whose rails touch Pergamino. Last year the Renta office collected $100,000 for Contribuicon Directa or Land-tax, while the licences amounted to $22,000 and the stamped paper to $21,500.

There is a very nice theatre in Pergamino. It has two rows of boxes and there are seats in the first for 500 people. The theatre is lit up by electricity. There are no less than four banks, a large brewery, a wine-'bodega' belonging to Messrs. Claret, Perez and Co. There are some very fine shops. There is a fine hospital kept up by the Municipality and the ladies of Pergamino. There are two clubs with splendid reading-rooms and every convenience. These clubs are excellent institutions.

Letters from Cordoda state that influenza is raging at present in that learned city. Several fatal cases have occurred, amongst others those of Dr. David Luque and Mrs. Paz, wife of Dr. Jose M. Paz. Diphtheria too is raging and the infant population is being decimated by it. The prevalence of diphtheria is a sure sign that the Municipality is not looking after the town. We suppose the Cordoba Municipality have not time to look after health matters. At present the Corporation is engaged in a legal tussle with certain house owners who refuse to pay the paving tax.

Our Santa Fe exchanges report the torrent of crime stronger than ever. We are glad to note that Minister Carrasco has left to inspect the settlements to verify the daily reports of outrages. Outside Rosario the other day the body of a man was found with no less than 36 stabs.

Advices from Cosquin announce the death of Eduardo Segui, brother of Mr. Juan Francisco Segui.

We note that the Rosario branch of the Banco de la Nacion Argentina continues to discount freely. At the last meeting of the local board it was decided to discount bills to the tune of $200,000. The rate is 6%, which is the same as that of the London Bank.

THE BEARING REIN.

Sir,

Will you allow me through your widely circulating paper to call the attention of the general driving public to the utter misery the horses in this city undergo from the unnecessary and immoderate use of the bearing rein.

I spent last Sunday afternoon at Palermo, and it was a pitiable sight to see so many fine and well-bred animals with their heads raised and strained into totally unnatural and unsightly positions. Could the owners of these unhappy horses realize the pain they are inflicting on them, I feel sure the use of the bearing rein would promptly be forbidden, or in any case modified to a great extent.

I may add that I have visited many countries, but I have never seen this rein so misused as in Buenos Ayres.

INTERNATIONAL BANK.

We find in a South-American exchange the following in reference to the above proposal, which attracted so much attention last year owing to the promoter's idea of opening branches here and the other South-American States:—

"Washington, June 24, 1892.—The opponents of the bill to incorporate the International American Bank are confident that the measure will not come before the House at the present session of Congress. They regard the bill as essentially un democratic, and do not believe that Speaker Crisp will go out of his way to allow it to come up for action. The Chairman of the Committee on Banking, has little expectation of getting the bill through, although he is one of the few Democratic members who favor it. He has left the city with the intention of remaining away for nearly a month, and at the end of that time the House will be too near a final adjournment to act on such an important measure.

Representative Wike of Illinois was one of the strongest opponents of the bill when it was before the Banking Committee, and at one time contemplated preparing the minority report against it. He afterwards turned the matter over to Mr. Dickerson of Kentucky, the brilliant young member from Senator Carlisle's district, and Mr. Dickerson has blocked out the outlines of a report. Illness has prevented his completing it, and he may not submit it at all if the bill is not to come up. He has the material in such shape, however, that he can prepare the report at short notice if it becomes necessary. He lays considerable stress upon the constitutional argument, that there is no power vested in Congress to charter such an institution. He does not think the constitutional grounds were strong for chartering the old United States Bank, but the Supreme Court decided that it could be done under the power of the Government to borrow money. That peg cannot be driven to hang this new incorporation upon, and Mr. Dickerson will argue that it is absolutely without constitutional warrant. He will also argue that it is the creation of an exclusive and dangerous monopoly which may affect not only international transactions, but the domestic business of existing banks.

The bill authorizes the proposed bank to establish a certain number of branches, and the favorable terms upon which these branches could do business with each other might enable them to take a large share of domestic banking away from existing institutions. Another danger which Mr. Dickerson fears is, that the capital of domestic banks might become involved with the fate of the international bank, and that the failure of a single branch—say in Uruguay or Peru—might spread loss and panic over the entire western hemisphere. He fears also that the branch banks would become political factors in South American countries, and, holding a charter from the United States might compromise our Government in petty local quarrels in which it would have no wish to interfere. There is no difficulty; Mr. Dickerson thinks, in common with Mr. Wike, in making the necessary arrangements for international exchange by existing banks if the volume of transactions is large enough to warrant it. The very fact that no such arrangements have been made is, to his mind, proof that there is little necessity for such an institution. He will mass these arguments with a good deal of force, if it become necessary to prepare a report, and he believes that not more than two of the Democrats on the Committee will refuse to approve them.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Mr. William White, C. E., who was commissioned by the National Government to make arrangements with the Argentine Railway Companies for the erection of a Central Terminus, a mission which by the way he has not been able to bring to a satisfactory close, returns to the Plate in the Royal Mail steamer Thames.

The Technical Inspection Office states that the Western Railway should be fined for compelling a passenger to pay freight on some plants he carried in a basket.

The Inspector-General of Railways has reported favourably on an application filed by Mr. Thomas Rodger, C.E., for a 20 years' renewal of his automatic distributor.

CONGRESS.

The two Houses of Congress met yesterday to scrutinise the Presidential election. There was a moderate crowd of the plebs in the Plaza, but the galleries of Congress were packed, and the police had to turn away many people from the doors. The assembly began business at 2.15, with 102 members of both Houses, General Roca presiding.

Dr. Gilbert made the first speech. Messrs. De la Fuente, Meyer, Obligado, and Victorica were named scrutineers. The Secretaries then read out the electoral returns for each province. Then Dr. Obligado read the result, as follows:—

Dr. Saenz Peña as President	210
Uriburu Vice	216
Dr. Irigoyen	5
General Mitre	5
General Roca	1

General Roca then rose and proclaimed Dr. Peña President and Dr. Uriburu Vice-President, and the important ceremony was over.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Hurrah for the Grand Old Man! Ireland for ever and the sky over it! Thanks to the courtesy of Mr. Daniel Baccani, the popular manager of the Havas Agency, we scored an editorial victory early yesterday in giving our readers a bulletin with the news of the fall of the Primrose Cabinet. There were only a few members of the House absent from the great division. The very few Conservatives in town were fully prepared for the blow: and there was a look of Christian resignation on their countenances all day long that was ineffably touching. Now for the new Cabinet.

The Clerk of the Weather permitting, all the pretty English girls in town may be expected at the Buenos Ayres Cricket Club Athletic Sports on Monday next at Palermo. We spent an hour yesterday gazing, like the Cossacks in the Louvre, "in barbarian (editorial) astonishment lost" at the treasures, in Messrs Gath and Chaves's window, that are to be given as prizes on the occasion. It reminds us of old and happier times to see Athletic Sports revived at Palermo. The entries are very numerous and promise splendid sport. The first race takes place at 11 o'clock sharp. Now ladies, out and on with your most winning costumes.

The mails for Europe close to-day at noon for the Galileo and 3 o'clock for the Potosi, which will leave Montevideo to-morrow.

The performance at the National Theatre to-night is extra and 'fuera de abono,' Mephistopheles will be given to-morrow night with Grani as Faust. Monday, the Moor of Venice will hold the fort; and on Tuesday the new alto soprano, Madlle Huguet, will debut in the ever attractive Lucia de Lammermoor. We hear it is worth a long journey to hear her sing the 'rondo.' On Thursday night Aida was splendidly given to a full house.

More ama[i]zing news. A kind subscriber in the corn trade sends us the following extract from the Corn Trade News of July 12th:—"We understand that the directors of the Liverpool Corn Trade Association have under their consideration the expediency of recommending for adoption a form of contract admitting Round Maize to the same privileges as regards its sale for future delivery as that already enjoyed by American Mixed Maize. This should be good news for the shippers of Danubian and La Plata Maize." Maize dealers should invite us to a mazy dance and supper in return for such cheering intelligence.

There was a political procession in the streets yesterday. It went to salute the President-elect and Congress. Dr. Peña had many visitors in the evening, when the scrutiny formality in Congress was proclaimed.

The following fashionable marriages are announced shortly to take place:—Mr. Julio Iturralde to Miss Anita Cichero; Mr. Juan Randle to Miss Saubidet; Mr. Alfred Oliverio to Miss E. Oliverio; Mr. de la Serna to Miss Edelmira Llosa; Dr. Tiburcio Padilla to Miss Carmen Victoria.

A horrible crime was reported yesterday. A policeman, after having taken a decoction of matches, mortally stabbed the wife of a fellow-policeman. It appears that the criminal was incensed at the woman's refusal to run away with him. The tragedy was enacted in the 'conventillo', Calle Venezuela 2375.

The P.M.G. received a telegram last night from Punta Este, stating that, in consequence of the gale blowing, the Patagonia and Espora were only able to fire a few shots towards Gorriti Island.

There were 34 births, ten marriages, and 42 deaths registered yesterday.

The Committee of the Kermesse request us to ask their patrons to send in their lists of invitations to the fiesta in the Opera House to 487 Cerrito as soon as possible.

We felt unusually musical yesterday owing to the receipt of "Berceuse," a charming piece for the piano, by our highly talented and esteemed friend Mr Gustave Nessler, whose clever compositions are always so highly appreciated in the musical circles of this very musical city. We were also favoured with a box of the useful invention "Musical Dominoes", which will save beginners in music so many headaches. We gave some particulars of this new invention some days ago. It will be of great assistance to music teachers with young pupils in the divine art.

In re glossy new hats, we have been favoured with the following:—

"Dear STANDARD,

"Referring to your note announcing the apparition of new hats as one of the signs of good business, would you kindly notice that solely and only owing to my three-year old having sat heavily on my aged and stricken stovepipe, have I sported the glossy tile you refer to.

Yours

Business.

Our second list of new members at Westminster was as warmly welcomed in English, Irish, Scotch and Welsh circles yesterday as the first. The friends of the victors drank their jolly good health, and those of the vanquished joined them in a better-luck-next-time frame of mind.

Another awful murder in Rosario. Corpse of a man found in the suburbs with no less than thirty-six knife wounds. The crisis of murder is now ten times worse than that in finance and general corruption. God save the country.

Tit-bit for our telegraph and railway subscribers:—"D. G. Ramsay, Grand Chief of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers in the U. S., controls 27,000 men and is only twenty-seven years of age. He lives in East St Louis and has served in the Illinois Legislature.

We beg to congratulate our esteemed German contemporary the Argentinisches Wochenblatt on its increased size. There seems to be a general flutter in the E. B. just at present, and a profound conviction that there is a tide of long-felt wants in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune. So may it be for all of us. For we are jolly good fellows, in the Press vehicle.

By all accounts the Argentine evolutionary squadron al Maldonado is getting on as nicely as even Mr. Paradox could wish, and the Clerk of the Weather is smiling on its manœuvres.

Here's something which a scientific subscriber gave us yesterday:—Suppose a steel spring to be immersed and completely destroyed in an acid. What becomes of the force contained in that spring? We candidly confess we don' know and are willing to wager that no one else does. It is easier to calculate the result of the collision of an irresistible force and an immovable object.

A young girl of 18 blew her brains out on Thursday in her parents' house in Calle Buen Orden. She had been partly out of her mind for some time.

Ciacchi's new ballet company will make their debut to-morrow night in the Politeama. There will be a rib-crushing audience, as nothing draws like a 'baile' in this dancing-mad city.

Rio News 'loquitur': "The 1,000,000$ prize of the Bahia lottery was drawn by the Banco Uniao de Credito. It is a good thing for shareholders to know that the banks are accustomed to invest in lottery tickets. Of course, when they take out a prize, nothing remains to be said." Some cranky shareholders in the lucky bank, we learn from the same paper, were virtuously indignant with the manager for speculating in the Lottery; but as the price of the ticket was only $200, and the prize a whacker, they were laughed down and told not to make d—ecided fools of themselves.

We are very sorry to hear that the popular orchestra leader, Maestro Furlotti, has been robbed of no less than $1000. He suspects a man who was formerly a fiddler in his orchestra, but has since hung up the fiddle and the bow, and started as a gentleman at large.

Who wants to know how humanity at large goes to sleep? The Scientific American describes the interesting process as follows:—

"It is said by scientists to be a fact that all our senses do not slumber simultaneously, but that they fall into a happy state of insensibility one after another. The eyelids take the lead and obscure sight, the sense of taste is the next to lose its susceptibility, then follow smelling, hearing, and touch; the last named being the lightest sleeper and most easily aroused. It is curious that, although the sense of smell is one of the first to slumber, it is the last to wake. Hearing, after touch, soonest regains consciousness. Certain muscles and parts of the body begin to sleep before others. Commencing with the feet,

ON 'CHANGE.

Friday, Aug. 12th 1892.

The speculative tide in the gold market began to ebb away fast this morning and the bulls were left high and dry with their purchases of yesterday. All the alarming reports spread proved to be moonshine, and down went the premium. About eleven thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $52.50, rose to $52.70, and closed heavy at $52.60, say a premium of 223.19%. Sovereigns were dull and closed at $16.35, say 224.40% premium. The turn in the gold market has caused a sudden revulsion of speculative feelings and opinions. Only yesterday the whole market appeared to be borne away by a bullish wave; what with the alarming rumors, the weakness of exchange, and the whisper of a "shortage" for to-morrow, the gold premium jumped to $53 per ounce in the morning; to-day, however, the scenes shifted, and the market, in a bearish humor, looks forward to gold at 150% premium before the end of the year.

There was a stiff rise, both in Patriotic and Internal Bonds, a sudden demand having sprung up this morning. A quarter of a million of these bonds changed hands at 72.10 for cash for Patriotic stock, and 67.30 for cash, 67.50 for 31st inst., and 68 for end of September for Internal Bonds. The news that the Caja de Conversion had redeemed a large amount of the stock sent in by the National Bank was the immediate cause of the rise.

Argentine Gas shares advanced one point this morning to 48. French bank shares fell to 45 and Banco Commercial were done at 30. The spurt in shares of the Catalinas Company continued, prices advancing to 10.70, but closing at 10.50. Holders of Catalinas are confident that Congress will hand over to the company the management of all the warehouses: it remains to be seen. Municipal Lottery Bonds were dull at 60½. La Plata Cedulas were weak at 29.20.

Exchange shows a firmer tone, but rates are nominal. Discounts are very easy.

The corner property of Plaza Lorea and Calle Parana, where the old tumble-down theatre Goldoni stood for many years, and which belonged to Mrs. J. Castro, has been sold for 90,000$%. The area is 154 metres on the Plaza and over 40 on the Calle Parana. The price paid shows a stiff rise in property in that quarter. Buyer, Mrs. S. de Rigal. Real estate brokers state that there is great demand for small properties outside the centre of the city, ranging from 20,000 to 50,000 dollars each: even suburban sites are sold easily at the weekly Sunday auctions, especially at the North end of the city.

Mr. F. Seeber has sent an appeal to the National Government begging that the license-tax levied on the Catalinas Wharves company be reduced to three thousand dollars. The appeal is plausible in view of the reduced business of the company and the many grievances it can lay at the doors of the Government.

Dr. Victorino de la Plaza, Argentine Financial Commissioner in London, has sent to the National Government the protest of the Board of the Great Western Argentine Railway Co. The Board urges that the Government treats the company with visible hostility.

The daily returns of the Buenos Ayres Custom House reflect an enormous increase in business, principally in exports, which were paralyzed for such a length of time owing to the crisis and fresh duties imposed at a moment when the people were impoverished. In 1890 and 1891 we all thought the warehouse accommodation afforded by the large buildings on the docks and Darsena and Lanus deposits was more than sufficient for many years to come. To-day, however, we must open our eyes to the fact that the capacity of the port is taxed to give berth to all the steamers coming in whilst, the ware-houses are overflowing with goods. The brunt of the work is necessarily carried on at the dock and Darsena warehouses, as merchants do not care for the Lanus deposits which entail extra charges for carriage, not to mention the loss of time from the ship or steamer to the Paseo Colon. As matters stand, all the warehouses are full and the Head of the Custom House has informed the Minister of Hacienda that the erection of warehouses at dock No III is an imperious necessity, as any day the storage accommodation may fall short of requirements and give rise to many difficulties and losses. The Chief of the Customs says also that it is necessary to proceed at once to the construction of three deposits for cereals, on the East side of Dock No 1, and two more on the same side of Dock No. 3. It is, indeed a sign of the times to see all the immense warehouses of the port works full, when but a year ago they were empty and there were few prospects of any great revival in business for some years to come. Both the import and export business this season has upset all calculations.

We take from the Diario the following interesting list of prices of wool at the beginning of the clip with the price of gold appended. The figures are very interesting and afford a lesson that will not escape the penetration of consignees, farmers, and so-called "escopiadores" who steadily sent their wools to deposit:—

All the above prices are from the Mercado Central de Frutos, where competition is always brisker than in the Plaza Constitucion. We may add that at the Central Produce Market this season the highest prices were obtained for wools — for Concordia, Gualeguay, Gualeguaychu, Colon, La Paz, etc. qualities. There can be no doubt that all produce forwarded from up river ports, from the Parana and Uruguay rivers, from the Atlantic Coast as far down as San Blas and Rio Negro—in fact all produce by water—must go to the Central Produce Market in preference te all others, in view of cheapness of freight, brisk competition, and unrivalled facilities. With regard to high prices in the Central Market, one of our leading consignees sold this season a parcel of Concordia wool at 168⅝ per 10 kilos, the highest price paid this clip: the parcel in question was sold by Don Diego Ramsay.

The following firms have agreed to accept the conditions of the Martin Garcia Channel stipulation with regard to the draught of chartered vessels up river:—O Bemberg & Co., Ernesta A. Bunge & J Born, Robert Hope & Co. Arning Brauss & Co, Bates Stokes & Co., J. Duesberg & Ca. Wiengreen & Co, Lorthiois Fréres, Ernesto Tornquist and Co., W Bertram, Bechem, Andrieu & Co., H. Harrison, F. Lutpoham, Wardan & Co., Mallman & Co.

Mr. F. Seeber, ex-Lord Mayor, sends us the following communication in answer to a paragraph in these columns in which we criticised his financial views as published in an evening colleague. We make room with pleasure for Mr. Seebers remarks and reserve for another issue n aanswer to same.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

When I speak of a country, such as ours, as not being overtaxed, I refer to the amount paid by the contributors, and I hope to prove that the present taxes in themselves are sufficient, but not properly collected and unevenly distributed; that poor men pay too much and rich too little; that commercein overburdened, whilst other classes should pay more.

It is difficult to know if the Argentine Republic has 4 or 5 millions of inhabitants; opinions vary, but I incline to believe in 5 millions; and to your inquiry if there is any country on the face of the globe where the public expenditure is so enormous as here, I must answer: "Yes; Great Britain, Australia and many other countries, according to population, taking into consideration not only the amount paid but also the power of acquisition of money."

It would take me too much time to prove that in my year's administration of the Municipality I was mainly occupied in prosecuting robberies, dismissing dishonest employes, recovering large properties improperly obtained by private parties, annuling dishonest contracts, reducing others for large and badly executed works, and finally that I would not consent to make a single foreign loan. My report of 1889, which I had the pleasure of sending to you, will give you all particulars, the perusal of which I venture to think will be at once useful and instructive.

I hope when my book is finished that you, as a good old friend, and the whole Bolsa will certainly not sign a petition to send me to the "Penitenciaria." It is sufficient punishment to live under present difficulties, for which, perhaps, everyone is more or less responsible.

Yours sincerely
F. Seeber.

August 12th.

The gold market ruled very weak at the second ring and the premium rattled down to 221⅝. Eleven thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow: the price opened at 52.50$ and closed at 52.30$ say 221.35% premium The market closed top-heavy. The news from Congress helped to put down the market; the result was a foregone conclusion, and no morbid fears could induce anybody to doubt the triumph of the conciliation candidates. Patriotic Bonds rose swiftly to 72.30 for to morrow and 72.90 for end of September. Internal Bonds rose rocket-like to 67.80 for to-morrow—a very stiff advance; the price for the end of the month chalked at 67.70, is merely nominal. Calalinas shares were active and steady; about six thousand were sold, closing firm at 10.70 for to-morrow and end of month. Spanish Bank shares rose to 106. Municipal Lottery Bonds were dull at 624. La Plata Cedulas advanced a few cents and closed firm.

Cheques of the state banks were stationary at yesterday's rates. Bonos of the La Plata Mortgage Bank were in demand at 18⅞ of their full value.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the second ring to-day:—

Owing to the sudden fall in the gold premium the maize business was rather dull to-day. Another cause of paralyzation is the undeniable fact that the passing requirements of the export market have been met, and a calmer feeling has set in. Prices to-day fluctuated at 7 dollars per 100 kilos for export at Rio Santiago and in the Mercado Central. Arrivals at the Once and Plaza Constitucion were small: there is a great clamor outside for more railway waggons, and the railway managers should apply to their respective Boards for more rolling-stock, especially as the busy season is drawing near.

It appears that the local distilleries have no maize in stock and they will soon enter the market to buy: this will probably steady or put up prices. The distilleries have been idle up to the present. As there is a probability of Congress increasing the duty on foreign alcohol, this will enable distilleries to pay higher prices for maize. Some holders of maize count upon this eventuality and the possibility of maize running short here, owing to the enormous shipments of the staple.

The arrivals of produce in the local markets this week have fallen off very visibly. Farmers are taking advantage of the soft, damp weather to plough up their ground, and the high roads are in such bad condition that carts cannot get to the stations: these are the two great causes of the sudden shrinkage of produce since the beginning of the week.

Messrs. Saturnino Unzue é Hijos handed to Mr. Lix Klett, Inspector General of the Chicago Exhibition Committee, six lambskins from the northern districts, of exceptional qualities. Messrs. A. Ojea and Co. sent to the Committee four fine skins from Pergamino. Messrs. Devoto, Gallegos, Balbiani and Co. presented half a dozen extra specimens from Balcarce. Messrs. Necol y Agar gave four from Rauch. Mr. Julian Ortiz handed 6 from Ayacucho. Mr. M. F. Parera gave four very large nutria skins, with winter coats, from Baradero. Messrs. Etchegaray and Co. gave four do. from the Laguna de Huancho.

A phenomenal pig-skin is at present on exhibition in the barraca of Juan Rivera é Hijos. The pig weighed 400 kilos alive. The skin measures 2.80 metres length by 1.80 do width, and comes from Magdalena. Dn Carlos Lix Klett will send it to Chicago.

We have great pleasure in calling the attention of our estanciero friends to the success which has attended the trials of the Thorncliffe Sheep Dip on Mr. Patricio Ham's sheep, and refer them to the splendid testimonial signed by the witnesses, which will be found in another column.

The report of the Banco Comercial of Azul for the year ending the 30th of June has been given round and possesses much importance for this market, in as much as the Bank in question has been started by the shopkeepers of Azul with a paid up capital of less than $600,000, and even with this small capital, and in a limited market such as Azul, the Bank has proved of great utility to the commerce of the place, and its net profits for the year, spite of a loss of $1717 in the branch of the Provincial Bank of that town amount to $114,397 dollars The total discounts for the year amount to 4,643,328 dollars, which seems to us a very fair amount for such a place as Azul. The Directors say that in the profit and loss account they have written off several amounts which they regarded of a doubtful character; and the profits would be greater but for the very heavy taxes which the laws have imposed on joint stock banks. From the report in question it would seem, however, that the Government only gets 5% on the profits instead of 10% as charged in this city, and we see no charge in the balance-sheet for the 2 per mil tax on deposits; nor is it stated what patente the bank has to pay. The rise, however, in the value of Emprestito Interno Bonds, of which the bank holds 20,000, has proved a good thing for the bank; the Directors having realised them at a price that gave 2,483 dollars over the values put on them in the previous balance-sheet, the Directors thinking it better to sell these bonds and also to liquidate a deposit account which they held in the branch of the Provincial Bank and on which they netted a loss of $1717. The Directors assure the shareholders that the business of the bank is progressing satisfactorily and that the manager, Sr Pouyssegur, and the other employees, deserve a vote of thanks for the able manner in which they filled their posts during the year; the deposits amount to very close on 1,000,000 of nats, which speaks well for the local credit of the institution, as it is clear that most of the merchants of the town deal with the bank. The bills and "pagares" discounted amount to a million and a quarter. The balances in account current in favor of the bank are small, being only $7,916. The cash on hand amounts to 262,559. The total expenses for the management of the bank for the year, including the taxes paid to the Government, only amount to 16,451 dollars, whilst the fees to the Directors and founders amount to a similar sum. Mr. Luciano Fortabat is the President and Mr. Naule is the syndicate. We should like to see how this balance-sheet compares with that of Mr. Lowe's bank in Mercedes.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Edward A. Horne, for many years accountant in the National Land Office. Deceased was the son of Mr. John Horne of Montevideo and had a wide circle of friends in this market; he was in failing health for the last few years.

It would appear that there is a general clearing out at the barracas and wool deposits, and that all the wool which has been so long locked up in deposit in the hope of gold rising, is now being sold. Much of this wool was bought outside last summer by speculators so that the loss does not fall altogether on the farmers, and the wool sales which are going on now are to liquidate and close up a very losing business, and to cut short losses which might be increased by a still further fall in gold. The quantity of wool in deposit turns out to be larger than the estimates of the barraqueros. With the experience of last year's heavy losses in wool purchases it is probable that this year we will have a much freer market; very little wool will be bought outside, and as fast as it comes to the market it will be sold at the best price. The losses in wool purchases last season were in some cases simply enormous, and one party who bought a large lot of well-known wool at a high price paid $50,000 to rescind the contract; it is not probable that this year we shall have any such operation in this market. The tremendous jump which maize took within the last few days is not due solely to the requirements of charterers to load their steamers, but is also attributed to a sud den rise in the price of Indian corn in the United States. The luck for this market is that there is so much available maize in the country, and from all we can gather, there is as much maize still to come forward as will load the steamers up to the end of October.

Bullrich's great auction of land in Santa-Fé passed off much better than many parties anticipated; the land sold from $2 to 13.50 per hectare, and the auction realised $1,130,077, which is a good round amount for lands in such remote parts as the frontiers of Santa-Fe and Santiago del Estero. These lands will all now be cut up and divided into colonies, as all that district is considered the very best for wheat and maize growing. A year ago this land could not have been sold for a 10th of the price it fetched, and the auction is another evidence of the wonderful peculiarity of this market, which, spite of the wreck and ruin caused by the crisis, supplices buyers at a few days' notice and at such high prices for so immense a territory as a hundred square leagues, and it is probable that before a year is about, Drysdale's ploughs will be cutting up the virgin soil, and the woods that cover the land will bow to the sturdy strokes of the European settlers.

It is a good sign to see the 'Veloce' steamers entering port now crowded with immigrants. The steamear Duca di Galliera entered the La Plata port yesterday crowded with immigrants; she landed over 650, and we hear that the succeeding steamers on this line are leaving Genoa crowded with passengers.

The following sales of city property are noted in the Contribucion directa office: Calle Corrientes No. 2581, 12 metres front by 37 depth for $25,000.

House Calle General Guido between Callao and Ayacucho, 9⅛x41 $35,000.

House Calle Garay 360, and Balcarce 1421, 13x29½ for $15,000.

House Calle Santiago del Estero No. 429 to 439, 15x52, for $37,000.

The new firm of J. B. Rigal and Co. is announced, of which Mr. J. B. Rigal & Mr. John A. Furtado are partners.

At the meeting of shareholders of the Italo-Argentina insurance company it was resolved to close up and liquidate the business, which is another evidence of the truth of our remarks that there are far too many insurance companies in this market. Messrs. Rissotto and Izetta and Nicolas Rubado were elected the liquidating committee, Mr. Spandre was named manager and Mr. Corbellini syndic.

With much pleasure we state that Mr Juan Lanus is now rapidly recovering from his severe attack of influenza.

It would seem from the statement of the manager of the Provincial branch Bank in Zarate, that the Bank there is doing some business and the people of the town are depositing their money in the Bank since the manager reports that the recent deposits amount to 250,000$ while the amount withdrawn or paid out is only 20,000. This goes to show that with the least effort on the part of the La Plata authorities the credit of the provincial Bank in the country districts might easily be restored, and if affairs were taken from the hands of politicians and entrusted to native and foreign merchants of this city, this once magnificent institution would very soon come round. But the first step to be taken must be to emancipate the Bank from all government and La Plata control, as otherwise the good and true men required for its management would not accept a post at the board.

Owing to the numerous forgeries of bank-notes in this city, in Rosario and in Montevideo the following important advices received from France will not only be read with interest by the general public, but also by the active members of the Caja de Conversion directory who, after all, should be held responsible to the public for the losses caused by these forgeries when, according to this news from France, they might be easily avoided. The London Economist says:—

"The Bank of France is about to issue notes of 100f., printed on a new kind of paper made from raime grass, stronger in texture but lighter in weight than rag paper. It is said that since the system of printing bank-notes in blue on a pink ground no attempts have been made to imitate them. Forgeries are now very rare, and out of notes to the amount of 1,000 millions that have passed through the bank since the commencement of the year only about fifty false notes were discovered, all of 50f. or 200f., and printed from the same plates. There was no example of a forged note of 500f. or 1,000f."

The London papers published an advertisement by an old established city mercantile firm for offers to recommend a good and trustworthy solicitor in Buenos Ayres, to parties having accounts to collect in the River Plate. This is the first notice of the kind we have seen in the papers.

It may interest telegraph people to know that a bill has been laid before the French Parliament for the concession of a submarine cable from Brest to Lisbon, the Azores, and Hayti, in connection with the existing French lines between the West Indies and South America. The French Government guarantees for twenty-five years a revenue of 2,300,000 francs exclusive of working expenses, but the advances made under the guarantee are to be reimbursed by two-thirds of the surplus receipts when these exceed the sum guaranteed, and after the debt is paid off the State will share in the surplus with the company. Government messages will be transmitted without charge. The cable must be made in France, be laid down by a French steamer with a French crew, and the directors of the company must be French.

IMPORTANT TO
SHEEP-FARMERS!!!
THORNCLIFFE
SHEEP DIP
We the undersigned, hereby bear testimony to having witnessed the dipping trials made with the above dip on two flocks of sheep badly infected with scab, at Mr. Patricio Ham's Estancia "Santa Margarita" (Capitan Sarmiento F. C. C. A.), on the dates of May 21st and June 13th 1892.
The dip was mixed in the proportions of one part of dip to forty parts of cold water.—The Sheep and lambs alike were passed through the bath, and we noted that not one single case of poisoning occurred, nor were the sheep uneasy afterwards, proving that the dip contains no poisonous or burning properties. — At the end of June we testify to having examined these sheep and found them absolutely cured of scab with only once dipping. We noticed also that they had improved remarkably in condition and that the wool shewed no signs of discolourment. We have every confidence in recommending the "Thorncliffe Sheep Dip" as one of the safest and most effective dips that has ever come under our notice.

EXTRACT
TOBACCO.
According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.
Directions for use
One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.

HORSFORDS
PHOSPHATIC
BAKING POWDER
BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.
What a wonderful result is this !"
